THE TOP 20 HOTEL OPENINGS OF 2020.

In the midst of a troubled region, Beirut continues to celebrate its reputation as the Paris of the Middle East. The Lebanese capital offers art, design, history and seaside glamour; the new Arthaus Beirut is particularly intent on tapping into the creativity of the city and its art scene. For this purpose, a set of residential buildings owned by a local family of art collectors has been lovingly restored, preserving a small part of the city's heritage in the process. [Set to open in April 2020]
